

Wine Spectator

The smoothest WiFi for all your connected devices

UPGRADE NOW

orbi | NETGEAR

— Ratings —

Tasting Note

ZYMÈ

Recioto della Valpolicella Classico Amandorlato 2011

Score: 92Release Price $240/500mlCountry ItalyRegion VenetoIssue: Web Only - 2019

Tasting Note

Richly aromatic, with a sweet and smoky hint of tarry mineral underscoring notes of raspberry liqueur, bergamot and sticky toffee pudding. Long and mouthwatering, with a chewy, spice- and herb-laced finish. Corvina, Rondinella, Corvinone and Croatina. Drink now through 2026. 98 cases made, 75 cases imported. — AN

Your Rating

You have not yet rated this wine.

Add this wine to this Personal Wine List

Default PWL (0)

ADD TO PWL

Generate Shelf Talker

Learn more about Personal Wine Lists

Related Links Additional Tastings User Notes

Related articles on our website for ZYMÈ Recioto della Valpolicella Classico Amandorlato 2011

Unfinished Business

Long after learning from Quintarelli, a master of Amarone, Zymè founder Celestino Gaspari still pushes traditional wine's boundaries and reaches for new heights in Valpolicella.

January 25, 2016

6 Standout Sweeties for your Sweetie (and What to Pair Them With)

Scores and tasting notes for Valentine's Day dessert wines from Germany, Italy, Spain, Portugal and the U.S., reviewed by Wine Spectator senior editors Alison Napjus and James Molesworth, executive editor Thomas Matthews, and associate tasting coordinator...

February 7, 2019